Title: Potential Fraud and Serious Misconduct

1 PURPOSE

This Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) outlines the process for investigating, reporting, and documenting potential cases of fraud and/or serious misconduct/noncompliance during any GxP conduct by or on behalf of Netramind.

2 SCOPE

This SOP applies to all Netramind employees, consultants, contractors, service providers, and investigator site personnel involved in Netramind-sponsored clinical research activities, GxP-regulated activities, computerized systems, regulated data handling, or operational processes.

Netramind may delegate certain activities described in this SOP to external service providers or Contract Research Organizations (CROs) where appropriate; however, Netramind remains responsible for oversight and management of applicable quality and compliance activities.

(QA) and their Head of Department by completing FRM-029-01 Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct Report Form.

6.2 Investigation of Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct/ Noncompliance

6.2.1 QA assigns a unique, sequential Fraud/ Serious Misconduct (FSM) Number in the following format: [FSM-YY-XXX], where:

- YY – denotes the last two (2) digits of the current year
- XXX – denotes a three-digit sequential tracking number beginning with 001. This number resets each year to begin with 001.
- Ex: FSM-23-001 is assigned to the first potential case of fraud/ serious misconduct identified in 2023.

6.2.2 QA collaborates with relevant FA Management, Legal (if necessary), Regulatory Affairs (RA), and if applicable, the CRO to assess the potential case of fraud and/or serious misconduct.

6.2.2.1 If the assessment reveals that the issue does not meet the criteria in Section 6.1.1 of this SOP, QA documents this assessment, submits it to the Head of Quality for approval, and archives the assessment in QA secure files.

6.2.2.2 If the assessment reveals that the issue does meet the criteria in Section 6.1.1 of this SOP, the affected FA Management follow Section 6.3.

6.3 Handling Confirmed Cases of Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct

6.3.1 QA, relevant FA Management, and RA meet to discuss the following, as applicable:

- The impact of fraud and/or serious misconduct on subject safety and data integrity
- If any further investigation is required (ex: if the PI/ site staff are conducting any other Netramind clinical trials)
- The status of site data
- Whether regulatory agency notification and involvement is necessary
- Strategies to avoid recurrence of fraud and/or serious misconduct
- Further monitoring visits to obtain additional information.
- Data checks by Data Management and/or Biostatistics and SAS Programming.
- Conducting a For-cause Audit of the investigator site or CRO in question.

Title: Potential Fraud and Serious Misconduct

- Terminating the investigator site contract or CRO participation in the clinical trial.
- Terminating employment (or the consultant/ contractor relationship).
- Development and execution of a Corrective and Preventive Action (CAPA) Plan according to SOP-007 CAPA Management
- Timelines for completion of any necessary action items.

6.3.2 QA briefs Netramind Senior Management of the investigation findings, conclusions, and recommendations for action.

6.3.3 All discussions, meeting minutes, and decisions are captured on the FRM-029-01 Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct Report Form.

6.4 Follow-up On Confirmed Cases of Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct

6.4.1 QA collaborates with RA to report investigation findings, conclusions, and recommendations for action to the appropriate regulatory authorities, if applicable.

6.4.2 QA archives FRM-029-01 Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct Report Form and all associated documentation in QA secure files.

6.4.3 Respective FA Management ensures that FRM-029-01 Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct Report Form and related materials are filed in the Trial Master File (TMF).

6.4.4 If the Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct Investigation involves Netramind personnel, HR files FRM-029-01 Fraud and/or Serious Misconduct Report Form and associated documentation in HR secure files.
